CHIEF WOOLSEY'S CAPTURE A MOST IMPORTANT ONE.

Will Get the $40 Reward for Arrest of Bazier the Negro Horse Thief Who Traded Off a Hired Rig.

A clean case of larceny by bailee has been brought to light by the arrest of David Bazier the Webster negro exclusive mention of which was made in yesterday's issue of the Independent. Constable Wilson of Connellsville came to Monessen today and took charge of the negro. He was taken to Connellsville where he will be given a hearing and likely be held for court. The horse will be held here until its owner a man named Null, living near Ruffsdale, calls for it.

The animal found in Bazier's possession was not the one he had taken, he having traded horses with Null. Tuesday Bazier called at the livery stable of J. L. Evans of Connellsville, and hired a horse and runabout to drive a short distance into the country.

The horse had just come in from a long trip, but on the negro's promise to allow the animal to make the trip at a walk, he secured the rig. Bazier got the rig about 10 o'clock and when by noon he had not returned Evans became suspecious and began making strenuous efforts to locate him. He learned that Bazier had gone in the direction of Mt. Pleasant but being unable to locate an officer in that town he communicated with Greensburg officials and about 10 o'clock Tuesday night a number of the state constabulary under Captain Borland started in search of the missing team. In the darkness however they missed him.

Yesterday morning a horse answering the discription of the missing animal was located at Ruffsdale where Bazier had traded it to a man named Null Evans was notified and went at once to Ruffsdale where he readily identified his property.

This morning Bazier was very reticient and would not talk of the matter. This was an important capture for Chief Woolsey and he is justly entitled to the reward of $40.00 which has been offered.

A Nice Wedding.

The Newcastle News of yesterday contains the following article thbat will be of local interest.

One of the most interesting events in Catholic social circles for some time past was the marriage at 8 o'clock this morning of Miss Catherine Currie, daughter of Mrs Bridget Currie of East Long avenue, and Mr. Anthony Moosman of Bluff street, the son of Mrs. Caroline Moosman, which took place in St. Joseph's church.

The sacred words of the ceremony were pronounced by the brother of the groom, Rev Father Moosman, now located near Pittsburg, who was ordained to the priesthood in St. Joseph's church, this city, only a short time ago.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk and carried white roses, while her bridesmaid Miss Emily Moosman, a sister of the groom, also wore white and carried flowers. The groom was attended by Mr. Currie of Monessen, Pa., a brother of the bride

Letter to P. Aman.

Monessen, Pa.

Dear Sir: If you could get the exclusive sale of a sweeter sugar for five miles round—1lb as sweet as a pound of usual sugar, and cost no more—you'd jump at it, wouldn't you?

There wouldn't be 100 lb of any other sugar sold in a year in your town; you'd gobble the trade; and it wouldn't hurt your whole business.

Devoe is like that among paints; it is twice as sweet as some; it is sweeter than any; not one exception; one gallon is two or one-and a-half or one-and-three-quarters.

Better than that; paint has to be painted, that costs $2 to $4 a gallon. A gallon saved is $2 to $4 saved in labor, besides the paint.

Even that isn't all. A gallon Devoe put-on wears as long as two gallons put-on at a cost of $2 to $4 a gallon and two gallons more put-on at $2 to $4 a gallon, Count all that. The paint that wears double costs less by 3 gallons of paint and 3 gallons of painting; that's about $15 a gallon for those superfluous gallons.

That's as good as a double-sweet sugar, isn't it?

Yours truly,
F W. DEVOE & CO

Was Only a Toad.

Two well known Webster ladies had a peculiar experience Monday in an attempt to capture what they thought to be a venemous reptile. One of the ladies Mrs. G. M. Snyder was washing on the back porch of her home, when suddenly to her horror she saw beneath a stone a few feet distant the head of what was apparently a large terrible looking snake. She at once called to her neighbor Mrs. Martin Cuthbert who occupies a part of the house. Mrs Cuthbert was as badly frightened as was Mrs. Snyder, both seemingly thinking it was some terrible demon of the deep.

After many incoherent suggestions as to what should be done, one advising that their husbands should be sent for and the other suggesting the police, both almost fainting in the excitement, they were still further surprised to see a harmless little wart machine, in other words a toad hop from beneath the stone of course they tried to keep the matter a secret, but they couldn't it just simply leaked out.

Robber Scares at Rat Terrier.

An attempt to burglarize the home of Wm. McShaffery, proprietor of the Star Theatre was frustrated about 1:30 this morning by a small family dog, which raised such a howl that the thief was scared away before he had succeeded in effecting an entrance. Mr. McShaffery who lives above the theatre was awakened a little before 2 o'clock this morning by the fierce growling of a little rat terrier, the pet of the house.

He started to investigate but the uninvited guest hurriedly took french leave. Mr. McShaffery promises him a better reception in case he calls again.

DEMOCRATS FILLED WITH HOPE

Defeat of the Republican Ticket in This State Next Fall Would Give Them Big Lead in Presidential Race.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, August 21.

Pennsylvania Democrats are eagerly waiting to join in the demonstration of the national Democracy over the homecoming of their leader, William Jennings Bryan.

There is already on foot a well organized movement in this state to bring about the nomination of the "matchless Democrat of Nebraska" for the presidency, and it is the hope and expectation of leading Democrats that the result of the election in Pennsylvania next November will materially contribute toward that end.

The Democratic state convention, which named Lewis Emery, Jr., for the governorship and put upon the ticket with him that trio of well-known Bryanites, Messrs. Black, Creasy and Green, flatly proclaimed in its platform that Bryan is a certain successor of Roosevelt in the White House. Michael J. Ryan, the eloquent presiding officer of that convention, evoked cheer after cheer by his eulogies of Bryan and his confident prediction that he will be the next president of the United States, and that the outcome of the election in Pennsylvania will foreshadow that result.

Democrats Looking Ahead.

Arrangements have been made to have a large representation of leading Democrats from Pennsylvania at the great Madison Square Garden reception.

The Bryan men in every county in this state have taken on a new lease of political life and are showing new vigor in their political work for Emery and the entire Democratic ticket. They are devoting particular attention, too, to the Democratic and Lincolnite favorites for congress in the several districts in which candidates have already been placed in the field.

They are quietly presenting arguments to the old line Bryanite Democrats for them "to stand by Emery and the whole fusion ticket" in order that the defeat of the Republican party in Pennsylvania this fall may be pointed to as a signal endorsement from the very citadel of Republicanism of what they are pleased to characterize as a great popular uprising for the election of Bryan to the presidency.

Bryanites Almost Fanatical.

In this connection the enthusiasm of the followers of Bryan in his own state of Nebraska is pointed to as emphasizing the feeling that exists in the hearts of his admirers throughout the country. Press dispatches recounting the scenes of the joint convention of Democrats and Populists of Nebraska held at Lincoln a few days ago all tell of the almost fanatical exhibitions given by some of the leading delegates.

Law-abiding, peace-loving and conservative citizens of Pennsylvania, who are being invited to join the Bryanites of this commonwealth in their efforts to record a vote of repudiation of the Roosevelt administration and the Roosevelt policies at the coming election through the defeat of the Republican candidates in Pennsylvania by fusion or other games of political manipulators, should read and reflect upon the sensational speech made by the presiding officer of the Nebraska convention. Then they should consider how far a triumph for the Emery-Donnelly-Ryan-Black-Creasy-Green fusion combination at the November election would go toward promoting the cause of Bryanism throughout the country.

Visions of Blood.

This is what Chairman Skiles, of the Nebrasha convention, said:

"The time is speedily coming when by the advice and command of the American people the guilty highwaymen, the oppressors of the poor and mockers of the courts will be brought to their knees in humble submission by an outraged people. It may take revolution, it may take bloodshed, but in my judgment it need take only the courage, determination and backbone of an American president, who will enforce the criminal laws of the United States against the multimillionaire and cabinet officer as drastically as against the most humble citizen in this nation. Such a man is coming. He is our friend and neighbor, that intrepid, ceaseless, tireless fighter, the great commoner and defender of human rights, William Jennings Bryan, the young gladiator of the west who, 10 years ago, struck the first deadly blow ever aimed at the heart of plutocracy in this country."

Mr. Skiles then pictured the American people waiting to vote for Bryan for president, and foreshadowed in the returns of the state elections to be held this fall in all parts of the country an emphatic demand for the "Great" the cause of Bryanism.

In this connection it is interesting to recall that the platform of the Pennsylvania Democracy, which nominated Emery for governor, said:

"We congratulate the country upon the fact that the only prominence the present Republican national administration has attained has been achieved by feeble and pretended application of the principles enunciated by the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, the great Democratic Commoner, who is now regarded as the certain successor of Theodore Roosevelt to the presidency."

A vote for Emery is a vote of indorsement of that platform, as well a a contribution of moral support to th Bryan presidential movement.

G. B. Burham of Carlisle Center, N. When suffering daily torture
From backache, rheumatic pain,
Any ill of kidneys or bladder,
Turn to Doan's Kidney Pills.
A cure endorsed by thousands.
Read an old man's tribute.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor, Ohio says: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always tired in the morning. I was troubled with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were unnatural and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Had a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

SIDNEY JUSTUS.

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Justus will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers, price, fifty cents per box.

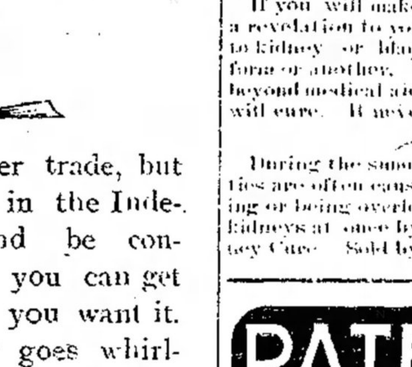
THIS TYPEWRITER DELIVERS THE GOODS

It's the Oliver—the Standard Visible Writer.

The Oliver Typewriter is just like an athlete stripped for a race



It is free from unnecessary multiplicity of wires and springs

No net work of flimsy keys to get tied in a hard knots

The nimble fingered stenographer can put talk into type with this machine just as rapidly as she takes your dictation.

For no matter how swiftly she writes, she can see just what she's doing

The key-board is so wonderfully responsive to the touch of the finger tips that speed comes without effort.

The factors that make for speed are its visible writing, its light, elastic key-touch, and it's all 'round simplicity. It has the fewest possible wearing points, and it prints with a downward stroke.

The OLIVER Typewriter

MONDAY MORNING.

Is It a Bad Time to Approach a Man on Business?

"Come in and see me Monday morning and we'll talk it over," said Gassaway, but Binks replied:

"Couldn't you make it Tuesday morning or Monday afternoon?"

So it was arranged for Tuesday morning. Binks turned from the telephone to me with a smile, saying:

"I'm glad he didn't make it Monday morning. We would never come to a conclusion then. You see," he continued, noting my surprise at such a statement, "Monday morning is the morning after Sunday. Never approach a man on business on Monday morning.

"I can't explain why it is, but every man goes to his office on Monday morning with a grouch. I suppose it's because he's been resting up all day Sunday and sort of hates to tear himself away from it. Anyway, I know it is so.

"Take your own case. I've known you many years, and whenever you meet me Monday morning I notice that you are yawning, taciturn and unsmiling. You had a good Sunday no doubt. Either you rested to beat the band or played golf or did something. Anyway, that took your mind off your business cares. Then you went to bed rather early, all prepared to get up early Monday. When the clock went off you were miserable about rising, and when you did get up you were ugly to everybody. It's the same way with all of us. We rest too hard Sundays. Instead of just relaxing a little we let everything of the week go and fall all to pieces in doing what we call recouping. It's the great American habit.

"That's the reason we have 'blue Mondays.' Some day, I suppose, we'll learn how to rest up over Sunday without completely disorganizing our work for Monday. If we don't I think it would be a good idea to cut Monday out of the business week and begin on Tuesday."—New York World.

The Orange Tree.

The orange is the longest lived fruit tree. It begins to bear the third year after budding, and for 100 years it will yield abundant crops. Orange trees have been known to attain the ripe age of 300. The orange requires less care and attention than any other fruit tree. Its early growth is rapid. In the first two years it grows more than it will in the next fifty. This refers of course to its height and breadth alone as fruit stems and consequently its crops increase more rapidly after the first ten years.

The Society Butterfly.

That maligned creature the "society butterfly" is as hard working in its way as Solomon's ant and goes about its duties with a steady application and a determined disregard of fatigue and boredom which not a few industrial and other workers might imitate with advantage. Take, for instance, the charity bazaars and festivals.—London World.

Too Strong Competition.

Country Mouse—How are you getting on with your business, doctor? Country Doctor—Bad. Too close to London. Why, Lady Cashbags went to town and paid two guineas to have a corn extracted. I'd have amputated her foot for that.—London Answers.

In His Enthusiasm.

Judge (to prisoner)—Why did you take only the money and leave the basket of silver? Prisoner—Because it was too heavy. Judge (excitedly)—Aren't you ashamed of yourself, you lazy man? Fliegende Blatter.

An Appraisement.

Marian—Now, there is Algy Van Pifflgilder, for instance— Jane—Oh, he is so haughtily statuesque that I have often wondered if he can really be tickish on the bottoms of his feet like common people.—Watson's Magazine.

To be respectable implies a multitude of little observances from the strict keeping of Sunday down to the careful tying of a cravat.—Victor Hugo.
